SUSPENDED FOR A YEAR.

B. C. Holly Disciplined by the California Association.

Visitors to the track at our last Fair will doubtless recollect the trouble the Association had with B. C. Holly, who was always in trouble and getting fined for foul driving and various other trickery. Last Thursday, at the meeting of the Directors of the Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association he was ruled off the track for one year for laying up a heat in a running race. The President told him that it would have been right to have suspended him for life. In its report of the meeting the Spirit of the Times says:

Groups of excited horsemen were congregated on Bush street awaiting the news, which on the whole was favorably received, one old time owner stating that there would be "four good whipping finishes tomorrow." B. C. Holly has for years been one of the best known horse-owners on the coast. He is a clever driver and trainer. The sentence is a surprise to horsemen, as it bars him from all tracks in the U. S. for a year.

During the same session was also considered the appeal of Wm. Thompson, the owner of Essie Shannon, against the decision of the Directors of the Nevada State Agricultural Society, awarding the Reno stakes run on Sept. 22 last to Holly's mare Nevada, with Almont second and Shannon third. It appeared from the evidence that after the race Almont was short of weight 7 pounds and Nevada 4 1/2, thus disqualifying them, but the judges gave the race to Nevada. The presiding judge and the clerk at the Reno meeting filed affidavits that the weights were wrong, while Charles Stoddard, the starter, tried to show that there was jockeying business with the scales, but as he has no evidence of record he was finally given thirty days in which to reply to the affidavits of the complainants.

An Indian Suicide.

Just after the races Tuesday evening, a pistol shot which started those living in the lower end of town, brought to the untimely end the most enviable existence of Indian Dave. He shuffled off this mortal coil at the instance of his own hand. His troubles, perchance domestic, were unknown and the cold lips silenced in the stillness of death can never now unfold them; but this much leaked out ere the last spark flipped. Dave had been on a prolonged drunk, and before his fond spree was done, his last dollars were clothed in another's jeans. In vain did he plead with his brunette partner of life for a fair divy of her spoils. She proved unmovable and it is thought probable that her coolness toward him in this his last hour of need, was the last straw that broke him down.—Pioche Record.

The Case Altered.

Judge—Prisoner, you are charged with gambling.

Prisoner—Gambling! What is gambling?

Judge—Playing cards for money.

Prisoner—But I did not play cards for money; I played cards for chips.

Judge—Well you got money for your chips at the end of the game, didn't you?

Prisoner—No I didn't have any chips at the end of the game.

Judge—You are discharged.—Exchange.

Tonight's Show.

The largest audience that ever packed the Opera House will be there tonight.

The Capitol Minstrel Company will commence making trouble at about 8 o'clock.

Perhaps a few minutes later. Everybody will be there, of course.

And a good many other people. There will be six end men on one side and half a dozen on the other.

Four end men at each end is the best that Haverly's Minstrels ever dared attempt.

Every joke will be fresh and the stamp of the Capitol Minstrels blown in each bottle.

Every man in the troupe is a star.

Several who couldn't be stars felt so lonely that they handed in their resignations.

The musicians are all rattlers, and the singers also.

New songs and new local gags will be the order of the evening.

Several local gaggers from the Comstock have been hired to throw up the fun.

There has been a good deal of talk on the streets about a raise in the price of vegetables, but there is nothing in it.

Notwithstanding the great length of the program the price of garden truck has not been advanced.

Eggs have gone up some, but cabbages are firm at last Fall's prices.

A large wire screen will be stretched between the troupe and the audience, with a two-inch mesh, and all will be well.

The orchestra have oiled up their horns, and there will not be a misplaced note.

Everything is fixed for a large house and a great time.

Empire Thanksgiving Shoot.

James Wiggins, the Empire rustler has secured 250 turkeys, ducks, geese, chickens and pigeons for a grand Thanksgiving shoot and has placed the fee down to the lowest rates.

Turkeys, 200 yards, 50c a shot. Geese at the same rate. Chickens at a distance of 50 yards, shotguns being used, with nothing heavier than No. 6 shot, 25 cents a shot. Birds must be knocked prostrate. Parlor rifle shooting, 50 yards, at turkey's head, 25cents per shot.

The sport will be conducted on a square basis and judges will decide differences on the spot.

No one is barred from the contest and a special invitation is extended the Carson and Virginia sharpshooters.

In the evening a grand masquerade ball will be given in Wiggins' hall. Costumes can be secured in the ante-room of the hall and a line of new stables have been put up for visitors who come with horses. Mrs. Kohle, the caterer will spread a Thanksgiving turkey banquet during the dance and is located but a few steps from the pavilion. o5td

There is no Secret

About your buying shoes to advantage. You may not know any more about the quality of leather than you do about a lost comet but that is no reason why you should get "stuck." Either you get your money's worth or you don't and if you don't it is your own fault. We are in the shoe business because we happen to know something about shoes and leather. It is "bread and butter" to us, therefore we make it a STUDY. Of the knowledge you get as much benefit as though you possessed it yourself for we place it entirely at your disposal and if you think that other houses can quote lower prices than we do, come and look at the goods and prices. We will put our time against yours and we feel confident that the result will be a mutual benefit.
